Will Test Force Of Atomic Bombs Against Warships

U. S. Plans Tests In Pacific
Against 96 Target Vessels Including War ships

TESTS TO OCCUR DURING MAY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Congress was told today that the destructive force of the atomic bomb will be tested against sea power next May in the Pacific by America alone using 96 target vessels, including 35 warships.

Rear Admiral W. H. P. Blandy informed the senate atomic energy committee that a joint U. S. Army-Navy air-sea task force manned by 20,000 men will conduct the experiment early in May in the Marshall Islands.

U. S. Experiment
Observers in the initial history-making trial will be limited to American military and naval personnel, U. S. press, radio and scientific representatives and members of congress, Blandy said.

"This undertaking is not a combined or international operation, but rather a scientific experiment by the United States government alone."

Blandy said the question of inviting representatives of foreign nations and foreign news services was under discussion by the joint chiefs of staff and the secretaries of state, war and navy.

The first experiment will be carried out by joint Task Force One under Blandy's overall command in Bikini atoll, 170 miles east of Eniwetok in the former Jap-held Marshall Islands.

"Guinea Pig" Fleet
One German and two Japanese warships, will help comprise the "Guinea Pig" fleet, which will include 35 combatant vessels. A second test is scheduled for July and another in 1947.

PA NEW OBSERVES

About time for somebody to be reporting sighting the first robin of the new year.

Pittsburgh announcement yesterday of the plans for completion of the purchase of the McClellan Mill site near the Lawrence-Butler county line is another long step in the program to have this site of scenic beauty made a state park. Ultimately it is expected that the region will be taken over for a state park, and will be retained in much of its original beauty for the future.

Another brand new discharge button will be appearing on the lapels of local boys soon, according to an announcement made by the U. S. Maritime Service in New York. Similar in size to the armed forces discharge pin, this official emblem of the men who were trained "to deliver the goods" in the Merchant Marine, consists of a spread eagle surrounded by a gold-filled wreath bearing the initials U. S. M. S. Superimposed on the eagle is a gold-filled fouled anchor.

One of Uncle Sam's local letter carriers was rather flabbergasted one day last week when a woman accosted him as he was removing the mail from the box just outside the post office, and complimented him on the prompt service she had gotten, remarking that she had just deposited the letter in the box. The carrier happened to notice that she had just come out of the post office building, and asked her why she hadn't mailed the letter inside. "Oh," she replied sweetly, "I just went in there to see what time it was."

Preparing Plans For Meat Plant Seizures

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—A picked staff of Agriculture department officials was scheduled to leave for Chicago today to establish headquarters for federal operation of the nation's strike-bound meat packing plants.

The White House announced that the plants closed by the eight-day-old walkout of 260,000 CIO and AFL packinghouse workers will be seized Saturday and the Agriculture department already is putting the finishing touches to its operating plan.

To Issue Seizure Order
The seizure directive from President Truman to Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson may be issued before Saturday to take effect on that date. The Agriculture department will handle the seizure with assistance from the War department, if necessary.

Leaders of the AFL's 60,000 packinghouse employees said their members would return to their jobs under government seizure, but CIO Packinghouse Union withheld any commitment.

Administration officials admitted that the seizure plans were announced three days in advance to give the companies and the unions an opportunity for an eleventh-hour settlement of their wage dispute.

France Selects New President

FELIX GOUIN

PARIS, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Felix Gouin, socialist chairman of the constituent assembly, was elected last night as the new interim president of France.

The 61-year-old Gouin, a small-town lawyer who rose to France's highest post, was named by the assembly to succeed Gen. Charles De Gaulle who vacated the presidency last Sunday night.

Selection of the jurist and relatively obscure politician by the old French standard ended a governmental crisis which appeared hopelessly deadlocked when the Socialist-Communist combine was backed by the more-conservative movement Republican Populaire.

Case

By PIERRE J. HUSS

NUERNBERG, Jan. 24.—The Allied case against Rudolf Hess, wartime Number Two Nazi, was postponed today by the international war crimes tribunal.

The court, which was scheduled to hear the case against Hess yesterday, did not indicate whether the department's plea that he be allowed to conduct his own defense would be granted.

Hess asked permission to defend himself after his lawyer broke an ankle and was placed in a hospital. Ernst Kaltenbrunner was absent from the dock as the prosecution proceeded with the case against Konstantin von Neurath, former "protector" of Bohemia and Moravia.

Postponement of Hess case deprived the world, for the moment,

Reveal German Subs Operated In Pacific

German Naval Documents Seized In Japan, Show Extensive Use
Of Nazi Subs

PEARL HARBOR, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Pacific fleet headquarters announced today that German naval documents, seized in Japan, indicated extensive use of Nazi submarines in far Pacific waters during the war.

One seized report listed 30 Nazi subs including three which had been taken from the Italian navy. The report indicated the subs operated from bases on the Malay peninsula and from two Java bases at Soerabaya and Djakarta.

American naval officers concluded from the German documents that only four Nazi subs managed to return to European waters after their activities in the Pacific.

Herge Will Be Brought Back To New Castle

Toledo Police Report Con-

Fatur, Ellwood City
Girl

CRIME OCCURRED IN LAWRENCE COUNTY

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 24.—(INS)—Ervin Herge, 37, Ellwood City, Pa., who late yesterday admitted the murder of Jean Fatur, 20-year-old Ellwood City dime-store clerk, was to be returned to Pennsylvania today.

Beaver County Detective M. J. Kane, one of three officers to whom Herge made his confession, said the former inmate of both the Ohio and Pennsylvania state penitentiaries would be transferred to New Castle, Pa., where he will be charged with murder.

Waives Extradition
Herge, who now is being held as fugitive from justice, consented to waive extradition. Kane and Cpl. C. C. Snipas of the Pennsylvania State police awaited the arrival of Lawrence county, Pa., District Attorney L. K. Donaldson and Lawrence County Detective Charles Ross before returning.

Herge, father of three children by two marriages, broke down and made his confession to Kane, Snipas and Henry County Sheriff Fred Bartel of Napoleon, O., after being grilled for a day and a half. First break in the case came when he said Miss Fatur jumped from his car and plunged into the Maumee river near Napoleon. Previously he denied any connection with the crime.

Signed Confession
The young electrician, in a signed confession, said the girl died in his automobile the night of October 17 following a bitter quarrel. Events

Deny Statement Reported Credited To MacArthur

Spokesman For Gen. MacArthur
Denies Charges By Russian
Official News Agency

By FRANK ROBERTSON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

TOKYO, Jan. 24.—Brig. Gen. Frayne Baker, official spokesman for Gen. Douglas MacArthur, flatly denied today that he had quoted the supreme allied commander as saying Soviet Russia was engaged in "a definite program" to discredit MacArthur.

Baker's denial followed MacArthur's repudiation of a so-called "spokesman" who was quoted as voicing a "rebuke" to the official Soviet news agency Tass for charging the American command in Korea with non-cooperation.

No Statement Made
Baker declared:

"No statement or comment whatever was made by MacArthur's spokesman in the Tass story, a statement so attributed is unfounded. MacArthur himself had not even read the Tass story."

The Tass story declared that the American command in southern Korea "has assumed the position of inspiring reactionary demonstrations against the decisions of the Moscow conference in which, as is known, the government of the United States participated."

The discredited "rebuke" to Tass, distributed by a press association not International News Service, said the Soviet charges were designed to "force further changes in the present occupation policies and command."

The Tass charges were flatly denied by Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, commander of American occupation forces in southern Korea which is under MacArthur's jurisdiction.

MacArthur, himself, refused to comment on the Tass dispatch.

'No Compromise' Stand In Steel Strike Is Stressed

Paralyzing Nationwide Steel
Strike In Fourth Day—
No Change Seen

FAIRLESS PRESENTS SOLUTION IDEA

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 24.—

Both sides in the paralyzing nationwide steel strike presented a hard "no compromise" front today as the walkout of 750,000 workers dragged into the fourth day.

Business in dependent industries was being slowly strangled. Coal mines in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and other states were shutting down, throwing thousands of men into idleness.

In Pittsburgh, the nation's steel capital, Philip Murray, generalissimo of the strike, was personally leading the union's battle. Not a day has passed since the strike started that he hasn't come out with a blast against the steel industrialists.

Verbal Battle
Labor seemed to be beating the drum to the punch in the verbal battle while thousands of strikers nursed time as the strike moved toward depressing developments.

Now and then, however, industry counter-attacks. Usually such reports to the union's rapid-fire batteries are a statement issued in New York by Benjamin Fairless, president of the United States Steel Corp.

Fairless last night offered a proposal which he said he believed might open the way to a solution not only of the steel strike but other strikes that now plague the country.

Fairless' Suggestion
Fairless suggested that President

Truman immediately call a conference in Washington of experienced representatives of companies directly involved in strikes. He said: "This should include representatives from steel and other industries. These men could discuss frankly with the president, and give him

A. F. L. Packing Plant Strikers Ready To Return

Seventy Thousand Ready To Resume Work When Government Seizes
Plants

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—(INS)—

Seventy thousand striking AFL meat cutters were ready today to return to work when the federal government seizes strikebound meat packing plants.

Tomorrow a vote will be taken among the 193,000 striking CIO Packinghouse Workers whether they will go back to their jobs under government operation of the packing industry.

The White House has announced that nearly 150 plants will be placed under control of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Saturday, with the army enforcing the seizure if necessary.

President Informed
President Earl J. Jernstrom and Secretary-Treasurer Patrick Gorman of the AFL union telegraphed President

Truman that their members will resume work immediately after the seizure. The union has announced it would accept a 15 cents wage increase.

The CIO workers have been striking for an immediate increase of 17 1/2 cents, with their ultimate goal set at 25 cents an hour.

Officials of the CIO group indicated they wanted some guarantee that their wage demands would be met before their members resume work under government supervision.

Byrnes Returning To United States

LONDON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—U. S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes said today that formation of an atomic energy control committee by the U. N. general assembly "will be very gratifying to the people of the world."

In a lengthy news conference just before he left London for Bovingdon Airport to board his plane, the Sacred Cow, for a flight to Washington, Byrnes also said he supported the British demand that U. N. hold immediate hearings on the three-man controversial issues—Iran, Greece and Indonesia.

By ROBERT C. NIXON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—President Truman reached into the navy's secret "O. N. I."—Office of Naval Intelligence—today to draft its deputy director, Rear Admiral Sidney W. Souers, to become head of the nation's new super-espionage agency.

Souers, who is 33, combines the hard-headed practical experience of a highly successful executive in business life with an impressive record as a naval intelligence officer both in peace and war.

The chief executive named Souers director of central intelligence within 24 hours of announcement of the creation of the new top-bracket super-espionage unit.

Heads World Surveillance
As such Souers became the J. Edgar Hoover of United States external intelligence surveillance.

Souers will "run the office" of the agency that will correlate and evaluate all foreign intelligence information gathered by the navy's O. N. I., the army's G-2, air force's A-2, and the State department intelligence setup.

In a still higher bracket on a near-presidential level, Mr. Truman has designated his personal chief of staff, Admiral William D. Leahy, to be his personal representative on the national intelligence authority.

Brides Of G. I. Joe's In England
Encamped At Hampton Downs

TIDWORTH, England, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Brides and babies of American soldiers encamped at Hampton Downs while waiting shipment to their new routine and strange food today.

Too many complaints voiced yesterday by the brides encountered their first morning in the strange surroundings were absent.

Many of the babies made friends with American soldiers. They played happily while their mothers attended to the routine red tape tasks necessary to arrange their passage to America.

Doctors and nurses came close to completing medical examination of the brides and babies. They were indignant at reports that there were no nurses in the camp.

One medical man said:
"There is a complete dispensary and sickbay, staffed with nurses, in the camp. There is a complete hospital with obstetrical facilities six miles away."

Atomic Energy Control Aim Of Action By U.N.O.

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Jan. 24.—Formation of an international commission to control atomic energy was unanimously approved by the U. N. general assembly today following a plea on U. S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes for common action to keep the peace.

The assembly vote was 47 to zero. Byrnes' plea for passage of a resolution was seconded by Poland and by Chief Russian Delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky, who declared:

"This is the first important act of the United Nations to secure the peace and security of the world."

It was Vishinsky's first assembly appearance since his arrival in London after consultations in Budapest on reorganization of the Hungarian government.

Byrnes told the assembly that if the race to discover the secret of atomic energy continues, the civilization we hoped to save may be destroyed.

Pointing out that the U. S. spent

Steel Plant Seizures Not Practical Now

President Declares Current Strikes Are Tryout Of Power By Both Sides

GOVERNMENT IS SEEKING STRIKE END

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—

President Truman indicated today the possibility of government seizure of the nation's strike-bound steel industry if the walkout of more than 700,000 workers continues.

The president told a news conference that he did not think it was practical to seize the steel companies at the present time, but added he was not saying the government wouldn't take over eventually.

Return At Old Wage
Mr. Truman pointed out that under government seizure the law requires striking workers to go back to their jobs at their old wage.

He said the 260,000 striking packinghouse workers must return to work at their old pay scale under government seizure of nearly 150 struck slaughtering plants scheduled for Saturday.

The president added that if the steel plants are seized, the steel workers also would be required under the law to return to their jobs at existing wages.

Mr. Truman declared today that the current widespread conflict between labor and management is merely a tryout of power by both sides.

Too Much Power
The president told a news conference that he believed there was too much power on both sides and that it was necessary for the government to assert that the power of the people is greater.

Mr. Truman said he did not like a concentration of power on their side that he did not think it was in the public interest.

It is in the public interest, Mr. Truman asserted, for the steel industry to accept his compromise wage proposal and for the more than 700,000 striking steel workers to return to their jobs under the 18 and one-half cent hourly increase he suggested.

The president said that the administration is taking everything

See Diplomatic Shakeup Near

Changes In Diplomatic Corps At Washington Of Extensive Nature
Pending

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—

A worldwide shakeup of diplomatic representation appeared imminent today as peace problems became even more intricate than those posed by the war.

As a result, the top men who have headed the embassies and legations of other lands during the war may diminish the prestige of the Washington diplomatic corps. But it is expected also to lessen the caliber of U. S. diplomats abroad.

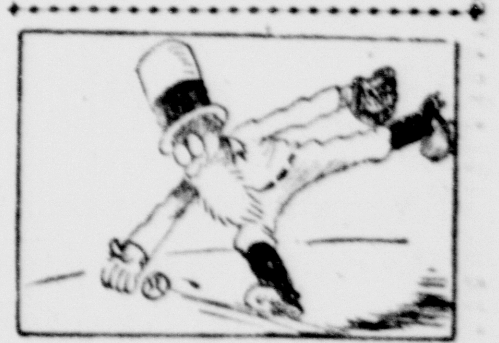

Important Change
In Washington the most important pending change is the resignation of the Earl of Halifax, the lanky patient and astute British ambassador. Halifax replaced the aide Lord Lothian, who died at his post. He arrived on January 24, 1941, in the darkest days of the war. President Roosevelt drove through a blinding rainstorm to Annapolis to welcome Lord Halifax as he arrived on the King George V.

The present ambassador was

In the second test scheduled for July the atomic bomb will be exploded at surface level. An underwater explosion experiment in the open sea is planned for 1947.

It was not known immediately whether one or more bombs will be dropped in each experiment. Only one was dropped on Hiroshima and one on Nagasaki just before Japan surrendered.

Blandy is the navy's outstanding weapons expert. He was chief of ordnance early in the war and supervised production of many secret weapons used against the Axis powers.

Other Vessels To Share
In addition to the 96 target ships, 50 other vessels will be used to transport personnel, equipment and supplies. Target ships will be unmanned and will be anchored or beached during the first test.

Scheduled for possible destruction in the tests are the old battleships Arkansas, New York, Nevada and Pennsylvania; the carriers Saratoga and Independence and the cruisers Pensacola and Salt Lake City.

Enemy vessels to be used are the 16,000-ton German cruiser Prinz Eugen; the 32,000-ton Jap battleship Nagato and the 6,000-ton Nipponese cruiser Sakawa.

Sixteen American destroyers were listed for possible obliteration. They were:

Maryat, Trippe, Stack, Rhind, Bagley, Helm, Ralph Talbot, Muford, Lamson, Flusser, Conyngham, Smith, Anderson, Mustin, Wainwright, Hughes.

Gasoline Station Attendant Slain

Hunt Young Man In Army Garb
With Car Believed To Have Been Stolen

LEBANON, Pa., Jan. 24.—(INS)—State and local police from eight communities today threw out a dragnet for a young soldier believed to be the hold-up slayer of James Strickler, 51, of Annville, a gas station attendant.

He was shot through the stomach last night while tending the service station of his father-in-law, R. B. Breiner, near Campbelltown.

Breiner told police a youth dressed in army garb stopped for gasoline and oil and after he pulled away Strickler was found lying beside a gasoline pump wounded. He died within 10 minutes.

Police said a black Ford sedan driven by the bandit was believed to be one stolen from Herman Runnack of Lebanon. They attributed the shooting to the fact the youth was unable to pay for the gasoline, since Strickler's wallet was untouched.

Authorities from Lebanon, Hershey, York, Lancaster, Pottsville, Reading, Lykens and the Indian-town Gap have been notified to be on the lookout for the stolen car.

Unity Of Command Is Strongly Stressed By Gen. W. C. Short

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Gen. Walter C. Short, speaking through the tragic experience of Pearl Harbor, endorsed unity of military command today as a "stronger, safer" defense system than the Army-Navy cooperation of 1941.

The retired Hawaiian commander told the Pearl Harbor commander that he and Adm. Husband Kimmel could have cooperated successfully in defending the island if they had received more information from Washington.

But he said that he now regards unity of command as a "much stronger, much safer proposition." Short also disclosed that the war department provided radar protection for New York City, San Francisco and Seattle before he received any such equipment at Hawaii.

"We must begin to work together and live together... we who fought together for freedom must show we are worthy of the freedom we won." Byrnes' appeal for the United Nations to reconcile their views and interests "for the common good of all humanity" was made in support of establishment of a commission for control of atomic energy.

It was apparently his last speech during the current conference before his scheduled departure today for the United States.

leading up to the young woman's death occurred only a short distance from her home, Kane said.

"She died in my car while I was taking her to a doctor," Herge's confession stated. "She told me she was sick. I slapped her several times and she slumped over in my car. I became scared and drove back to my garage at 714 Pershing street in Ellwood City."

"I went into the house and waited an hour before returning to the garage, where I partly undressed her, taking off her coat and clothing. I then wrapped her body in some burlap and stuffed it in the trunk of my car."

Stayed At New Castle

Kane said the following day he motored to New Castle, where he visited for three days with friends. On October 22 he said he drove to Malinta, O., to visit an uncle, Frank. He remained in the Ohio community until the night of October 27 when he drove to the nearby Damascus bridge and dropped his victim's body into the muddy waters of the Maumee river.

He said he threw the girl's shoes into the river also but burned her clothing in his uncle's furnace.

To Bring Herge Here

District Attorney Leroy E. Donaldson and County Deputies Charles Ross, left for Toledo by automobile Wednesday evening to return Herge to New Castle. He has waived extradition proceedings which means he can be turned over without the necessity of a hearing.

In the district attorney's office today it was not known whether the officers would start back to New Castle today or wait until Friday morning to return.

The probabilities are that a charge of murder will be lodged against him as soon as he is returned and he will be held in the county jail without bail, pending the action of the March grand jury.

the benefit of their advice on what kind of a wage increase the economy of this country can endure without incurring the danger of an inflationary spiral with a constant race between mounting wages and mounting prices."

The union's latest blast at the corporations was an appeal to President Truman to do something about the more than a billion dollars worth of government-owned steel plant facilities now under control of the industrialists who rejected Mr. Truman's proposal that the steel workers be granted an 18 1/2 cents an hour wage increase.

Murray's union took the position that these facilities should be made available for private operation by individuals, such as Henry J. Kaiser, or should be operated by the government until steel companies accept the president's suggestion.

There were no reports of disturbances anywhere on the strike front. It is one of the most orderly big strikes in history. One union spokesman put it this way:

"It's unusually quiet."

New Bedford Woman Dies From Bullet Wound

Mrs. Evelyn Schlegel, 33, Fatally
Wounded In Her Home Last Night; Believed Accidental

Believed to have been shot accidentally, Mrs. Evelyn Schlegel, 33, wife of William Schlegel, died almost instantly at 6:45 Wednesday at her home near New Bedford when a 32 calibre bullet hit her in the breast as she was getting dressed.

State police, Sheriff Frank L. Olen and Deputy Coroner Peter Rupp answered the call and found the woman dead in a bedroom at her home on the Sharon road a half mile from New Bedford. Investigation revealed that her husband and children and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Keller were at the dinner table with Mrs. Schlegel. Her husband suggested that she get dressed if they were going out for the evening. Mrs. Schlegel left the table and went to the bedroom. Shortly a shot was heard and her husband rushed into the bedroom, finding his wife dead.

A revolver was kept in the bureau drawer in the bedroom among some purses and clothing. It seems possible, officers believe, that the gun became entangled in the clothing of Mrs. Schlegel, it exploded, killing her.

Mrs. Schlegel was born in Youngstown, O., July 17, 1912, daughter of LeRoy and Anna McCartney. She lived in New Bedford for three years.

In addition to her husband and three children she leaves her parents and several brothers and sisters.

The body was removed to the Williams funeral home, Canfield, O., where interment will also be made.

STEEL PLANT SEIZURES NOT PRACTICAL NOW

possible to bring an end to the current nation-wide steel tie-up.

Door Is Open

Concerning a proposal by Benjamin Fairless, U. S. Steel president, that Mr. Truman call an all-industry conference on reconstruction, the president said that if the industry officials come to Washington the White House door is always open.

The president observed, however, that he did not make appointments over the radio or through the press and reminded reporters that he already had had conferences with Fairless and CIO President Philip Murray on the steel strike.

Mr. Truman agreed that the strike-locked steel workers could not go back to work if the industry did not accept his wage compromise.

He also stated that under government seizure of the strike-bound meat plants, scheduled for Saturday, the workers will have to return to their jobs at their old wage. The president said the law makes such a requirement.

Not Practical At Present

Mr. Truman said he did not believe it was practical to seize the steel companies at the present.

He added, however, that he was not saying the government wouldn't take over eventually. If the struck steel workers also will be required to go back to work at their old wage the chief executive explained.

In response to a question, the president said he had no evidence to support Murray's charge that industry was engaged in a conspiracy to smash labor unions.

PREPARING FOR MEAT PLANT SEIZURES

The same officials said today, however, that hope for such a settlement virtually has been abandoned.

To Cover 150 Plants

The seizure order is expected to cover nearly 150 slaughtering plants of some eight companies plus a large number of branch distributing plants. Agriculture officials estimate that from 60 to 65 per cent of the federally-inspected supply of meat which represents 80 per cent of the nation's total meat output.

Gayle G. Armstrong, deputy administrator of the Agriculture department's production and marketing administration, was designated by Anderson as his personal representative to carry out the seizure program.

No immediate wage increases are foreseen for the strikers upon their return to work. Officials indicated that the government's fact-finding board now in session in Chicago will first make its recommendation and these findings will be submitted to the National Wage Stabilization board for approval.

Saturday, January 26, from 1 p. m. to 3 p. m. there will be a house to house pickup on all streets of the city of any kind of donations for the clothing collection. This pickup will include all kinds of articles such as bedding, sheets, pillow cases, blankets, overcoats, coats and suits, trousers, dresses, underwear, socks, stockings, work clothes of all kinds including overalls and waists, all kinds of children's clothing, shoes, galoshes, overshoes, and all similar kinds of wearing apparel.

Advice to the lawnmowers returned from their Christmas holiday: "Congress," says S. E. Forman, in the American Democracy, "is the hope of the nation. In its halls have been done the things that have made America the country it is and our political destinies are still in its hands. They must remain in its hands if America is to remain free."

Every citizen of New Castle who has anything to donate to this collection is requested to tie his clothing in a neat bundle and place it on the steps of his home or on the porch, so that the trucks coming along the streets can easily see the donation.

Sometime during the afternoon these bundles will be picked up. It is a big undertaking for a few trucks to cover all the streets of New Castle in one afternoon. If by any chance your bundle is not collected, call 6546, giving your name and street number, and a collector will be dispatched as soon as possible.

All persons who work for the victory clothing collection give their services voluntarily and without compensation, and of course can work only when they have the time to leave their job or place of business. This being the case, shortcomings that occur in connection with the work of the victory drive should be taken into consideration. Please keep in mind that some mistakes will be made and all the work will not be perfect.

Are Doing Best
We are doing our best to see that everything goes as smoothly as possible and that the work is carried out according to schedule. We hope the public understands our problem and the difficulties that have to be overcome. If you have a suggestion that you think would help the cause, call 6546 and tell us about it. We appreciate your interest and will consider carefully your suggestions.

There are two reasons for the house to house pickup. In the first place it is the desire to give everyone who wishes to make a contribution to this very worthy cause an opportunity to do so, and in the second place it is our desire to help the needy and suffering peoples of the earth as much as possible.

So far this week we are behind schedule and the drive ends one week from today, Thursday, January 31. To repeat, have your donation ready by next Saturday afternoon at 1 p. m. You could not be aiding a more worthy cause.

WASHINGTON REPORT

criminals, as we victors call the enemy in defeated countries, were following this principle. Only we were successful. Had we been pushed to the wall, who knows what we might have done? Certainly the first use of the atom bomb by us did not prove us to be great humanitarians. Rather it proved us desperate to end a war quickly. Perhaps the atom bomb was necessary. I shall not argue that.

A lawyer at the dinner party I am reporting said that from a legal point of view the Nuremberg trials were bad. There was no legal truth in them. The war criminals were not being tried by an unbiased jury. They were being tried by victors, working to put a case before the world, as dispensers of justice.

We, the Allies, were in no position to say who started the war or who was right or wrong. That would have to be decided by an utterly impartial jury of men who had no part in the war. Made up of neutrals, a Swiss, an Eskimo, a Portuguese and so on.

The you-have-no-right-to-execute-the-war-criminals group concluded with this repetition: "How can you ever be sure who starts a war? However, we do not recommend that these people in Japan or Germany, whom we call war criminals, go unpunished. Exile them to some barren island. Extract their fangs. But don't degrade ourselves by taking their lives."

THE PARENT PROBLEM

the children in that school sense this problem in their homes, their children growing faster in intellectual interest and knowledge than in emotional control, in regard for the rights and feelings of others. Pretty generally, the nation over, the more high-strung the children and their parents at home, the more exciting the school which they attend, the children helping to make school jittery and the school stimulating the children to be more excitable.

Noise in school which has an obvious purpose and which does not hamper the work at hand or make the children more jittery should not disturb us, but when school children have not learned to be still and quiet with reasonable promptness at manifestly desirable times we parents should properly be concerned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—President Truman has named Secretary of the Treasury Fred M. Vinson to be United States governor of the International Monetary fund and of the International bank.

The International Monetary fund structure was set up under the Bretton Woods agreements. Mr. Truman named assistant secretary of state William L. Clayton to be alternate governor in each instance. The terms run for five years.

The president named assistant secretary of treasury Harry D. White to be executive director of the International Monetary fund for a two year term and Emilio G. Collado, of New York, to be executive director of the International bank for two years.

The nominations were sent to the Senate.

Fifteen Teachers Enroll In Evening Classes In College

NEW WILMINGTON, Jan. 24.—Fifteen high school teachers in the district have registered for graduate work at Westminster college.

Working on a master's degree in education, the teachers are taking the second semester course, "principles and techniques of guidance," taught by J. I. Reaney, assistant professor of education.

Instead of the two evenings spent in the classroom during the first semester, one evening's work is being given. Classes will be held from 5 to 6:30 p. m. and 7:30 to 9 p. m. Thursdays.

IMPORTS FROM EUROPE HEAVY

Survey Of Customs Officials Reveals Imports From Europe Have Doubled

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—(INS)—A survey of customs officials, buyers and merchandisers revealed today that imports of European manufactured goods have doubled in the past month.

And, these sources revealed, the stepped up pace of these imports are expected to continue and increase steadily during the next several months.

England is currently leading the upsurge of American import activity. She is shipping constantly increasing supplies of bicycles, motorcycles, china, earthenware, leather goods, of all sorts, textiles, large quantities of Irish linens and woolen knitwear.

Large Quantities
Customs officials further revealed that Swiss watches are continuing to pour into the country, along with large quantities of Swiss-made handkerchiefs.

France has started exporting gloves, handkerchiefs, some military and ravens to the United States. Buyers said that nation also soon will begin shipping huge quantities of rugs.

Diamonds are coming from Belgium in increasing numbers, and glassware and textile machinery from the Scandinavian countries.

Holland has exported large shipments of tulip bulbs while the first shipment of sardines from Portugal in more than a year arrived during the past month.

The first Union regiment to go to the front in 1861 fully equipped with uniforms and arms was the First New Hampshire, composed mostly of men from Concord and neighboring communities.

This is to be expected for we honestly believe that ENDOCREME has no equal in the way it can help the skin of face and throat to become firmer, fresher, more "alive" and lovely with youthful bloom. It contains ACTIVOL**, an effective replacement for woman's own natural, skin-beautifying substance. Absorbed by the skin, it helps restore normal growth to ageing cells and tissue. ## Calls On Senate To End Filibuster

Majority Leader Barkley Tells Senators To Break Off Southern Bloc Filibuster

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Majority Leader Barkley (D-KY), today called upon the Senate to break off the filibuster by a bloc of southern Democrats against the fair employment practice bill.

In a strongly-worded statement, Barkley urged the Senate to vote for cloture to limit debate on the bill and bring the measure to a vote. He said:

"I feel the filibuster as a legislative institution is unjustified and indefensible."

Barkley added that he would sign a cloture petition and vote for the debate-limiting measure when it came to the Senate floor.

The administration leader absolved President Truman of charges that he was behind the move of bringing the FEPC before the Senate at the present time.

Barkley said that as far as he knew, the President had no knowledge that Senator Chavez (D, N. M.), planned to bring the measure to the Senate floor at this time.

Nor, Barkley asserted, had he ever discussed with the President the timing of the attempt to pass the measure banning discrimination in employment because of race, color, creed or ancestry.

Barkley stated flatly: "I assume unhesitatingly the responsibility for the fact the bill is now under consideration."

He said he knew the bill would be brought up early in the session after the Christmas recess, but not exactly when.

Sgt. Gifford DeEulio Has Army Discharge

Dewey Avenue Veteran Served With 776th Amphibious Tank Battalion On Okinawa

After 45 months of active duty, Sgt. Gifford DeEulio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patsy DeEulio, 1613 Dewey avenue, has received an honorable discharge from the army.

Entering into active service at Camp Chaffee, Ark., in 1941, Sgt. DeEulio was later sent to Armored Force school at Fort Knox, Ky., where he received a diploma on completion of the mechanical, electrical and communication system courses and tank study.

On June 1, the Dewey avenue veteran was ordered from Fort Ord, Calif. for overseas duty where he served with the 776th Amphibious Tank Battalion then attached with the 6th Army as a radio operator and assistant driver. His battalion established beachheads and held them until the infantry was able to take over.

Sgt. DeEulio served in campaigns in Leyte, Philippines and surrounding islands and finally on Okinawa as a fire direction center computer.

He was awarded the Asiatic-Pacific Campaign, Theater and Philippine Ribbons, Good Conduct and Victory medals along with four battle stars and one bronze arrowhead.

Amvets Seeking Housing Relief

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Allentown Council of American Veterans of World War II today asked the building trades for relief from union restrictions in housing construction.

State Vice Commander D. B. Barnhart of McKeesport said: "We ask the unions to lift their restrictions, if only for a limited time, so that proper housing facilities may be procured for veterans who wish to erect their own homes or businesses."

The Amvets contend that restrictions on the amount of work by a laborer and on the use of labor-saving devices were out of place at this time.

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Price Control Extension Urged By Federation

A. F. Of L. Would Extend Price Control Measure For Year From June 30

MIAMI Fla., Jan. 24.—(INS)—The nation's critical housing shortage today drew the attention of the American Federation of Labor Executive Council in the wake of its demand upon Congress to stop inflation.

It appeared likely that the council would urge more rigid government control of home building.

President William Green said that a committee had been appointed to study inflationary trends in housing. He said that, along with real estate values and price of materials, the committee would consider possible methods of control.

Extend Price Control
The AFL, meanwhile, called for an immediate one-year extension of the price control law which expires June 30.

Green said the organization is fully aware that labor must endure ceilings on wages as a corollary to control of prices. The council stated, however, that failure to reactivate OPA legislation would be suicidal for the government.

Prevailing speculative activities and luxury spending were given as basic reasons for extension of the law. The labor leaders also claimed that uncertainty as to future government policy already has slowed down production because business concerns are reluctant to make commitments in the dark.

The council warned that controls should be exercised cautiously and selectively. The group explained: "In normal times we would vigorously oppose any such government interference with a free economy. The American Federation of Labor regards price control as a necessary evil."

CHICAGOANS HURT IN AUTO UPSET

Minimum Wage Bill Approved

Senate Labor Committee Approves

Boost From 40 To 65 Cents Minimum Wages

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—The Senate labor committee today approved the administration's minimum wage bill which would boost the present hourly wage floor from 40 cents to 65 cents.

Members said the measure was approved "overwhelmingly", but that Sen. Morse (R-Ore.) immediately moved to reconsider the action.

The committee therefore will take up Morse's motion this afternoon for a final showdown on the wage legislation.

The bill provides for increases of 70 cents an hour in two years and 75 cents in three years.

As the committee met, foes of the sharp increase in the wage floor were fighting for the best compromise they could get.

They hoped to hold the immediate increase to a 55-cent floor instead of the proposed 65 cents an hour.

By the compromise, the floor would increase to 60 cents after 18 months and to 65 cents in three years, subject to approval of industry committees.

Find Good Chain If You Object To New White House Office

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—President Truman sharply but humorously took issue today with persons objecting to construction of the $1,600,000 addition to White House offices.

Mr. Truman said his new residence doesn't think the president of the United States should have to hang out in Washington in the White House East Room as Dolley Madison used to do.

He recalled that when the government proposed to break ground for construction of the Thomas Jefferson memorial a bevy of ladies dressed themselves to Japanese cherry trees along the Tidal Basin in protest against removal of the trees.

The president invited any objectors to the White House improvements to find a good stout tree on the grounds of the executive mansion and chain themselves to it.

He recalled that when the government proposed to break ground for construction of the Thomas Jefferson memorial a bevy of ladies dressed themselves to Japanese

Little Flower Will Represent Truman At Brazil Inauguration

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—President Truman said today that former Mayor Fiorella LaGuardia of New York City will go to Brazil as his personal representative to attend the inauguration of Brazil's new president.

The President said in his news conference that Brazil is the friend of the United States and the United States is the friend of Brazil, and that it always should be that way.

He said that some sentiment also applies to every American nation which wishes to be friends with this country.

On the first coast-to-coast air mail flight, the mail was carried in planes by day and trains by night.

In the history of the New York stage, Sigmund Romberg is the only composer who has had three shows which have each seen more than five hundred performances on Broadway. Namely, "Blossom Time" (1921), "The Student Prince" (1924), and "The New Moon" (1928). "Up In Central Park" the 1945 Musical with a Romberg score, has made the hit class largely because the music is "lush" and "singable".

New Castle Well Represented When American Field Service Drivers Were Moved To China

Stationed with a small and not-too-well-known organization, attached to British troops in India, hundreds of miles away from the nearest Yanks, three boys from New Castle, Pa., were somewhat more than slightly surprised to find each other serving with the American Field Service in a place called Secunderabad, in south central India.

Three from Here
First of the three to go overseas was Fred McKee, son of Mrs. Rebekah McKee, of 306 North Jefferson street. Leaving the United States in October, 1944, he served as a Field Service ambulance driver attached first to the British Eighth Army in Italy, and later to the First Canadian Army in Holland. After the end of fighting in Europe, he was transferred to India, as was Eddie Martin.

Mr. Martin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Martin of 512 Florence avenue, volunteered for duty with the American Field Service on the first of January, 1945, and was attached to the famous British Eighth Army in Italy before being transferred to the CBI.

Charles Book, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McKissick, of 136 Northview avenue, was sent directly to India where his unit was attached to the British Fourteenth Army. This army was made up not only of the British Tommies but also of Chinese and Sikhs, some of the fiercest fighting men in the world. The Gurkha comes from Nepal, between India and Tibet, while the Sikh comes from the Punjab.

In Two Wars
The American Field Service got its start during the first World War, when American students stranded in Paris, helped to evacuate French civilians by converting their cars into ambulances. This group was later organized as part of the French army, and was reorganized in 1939. Field Service ambulance drivers were on hand at Dunkerque, and have some about their work in every theater of war.

Wore British Uniforms
The men of the American Field Service had the special rank of "volunteer" with their own American officers, although their status was approximately that of a private in the British army. They usually wore British uniforms, with a few pieces from American uniforms when they could be obtained. They slept in tents, ate British rations, and were paid, according to British rates, which are much lower than in the American army. The volunteers were Americans who had not been drafted to serve with the U. S. forces.

Mr. Book, who volunteered in April, 1945, drove over the ambulance route between Bombay and Calcutta for a while, carrying British subjects who had been held prisoner by the Japanese in Singapore. When all of the American Field Service was later transferred to south central India, he met the other two New Castle men in Secunderabad.

When asked what they thought was the most important thing they had gained from their service, all three men had a different answer. For Fred McKee, it was "experience"; for Eddie Martin, "travel, education, a chance to do something during the war"; and for Charles Book it was "acquaintanceship with the British Tommy, who is really a swell fellow and a terrific fighter, and a chance to get into part of the war".

All three have now returned home. McKee and Martin arriving in the United States Thanksgiving time, and Book arriving on the Queen Elizabeth on December 28.

Shampoos En Route Are Newest Thing In Traveling Now

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 24.—(INS)—The traveling lady of tomorrow will have all the conveniences of home—and more—as she spreads over the rails in new streamlined trains, according to Otto Kuehler, consultant to the railroad industry.

Kuehler told the American Society of Mechanical Engineers that the lady will be able to relax in beauty parlors aboard the new trains. The cars also will include special compartments to accommodate mothers and their babies, he added.

Present Concert At Deshon Hospital

Under the sponsorship of William Richards of this city, the "Hi-Note" group of nine girl singers, of Boardman, O., presented a concert in the Deshon General hospital near Butler on Sunday, January 20. A program of secular and popular songs was presented with Delbert Mook, tenor, assisting. Diverting the singing was Miss Barbara Hughes with Miss Marilyn Pounds at the piano.

There is a need for wholesome entertainment at the hospital just now and the offer of amateur orchestras for party nights would be appreciated.

IN THE OPEN

The January sun tempered the frosty morning and then went into hiding behind a haze blanket. By mid-morning we had the makings of a perfect winter day. It was cold enough to provide solid footing and made to order for comfortable hiking. After stoking away a good hot breakfast my game appeared in outdoor costume and informed me we were taking a walk through the valley below the house. Ten minutes later we stepped into the thicket above the trout lily glen and were soon rambling in Indian file along a faint pathway.

We had hardly left the highway when we encountered a dying locust tree which had required the exact stage of decay required to properly nourish a colony of small bracket fungi. There were hundreds of brackets climbing the trunk. The effect was as of a miniature skyscraper apartment house with swappings open above every window. I did not stop to look, but the chances are good that many of those "apartments" were really occupied. The lady beetles and spiders and other small fry of the winter woods have learned that these bracket awnings really keep out the weather.

Test Puffballs
We crossed the swamp and there were the web-footed, throaty, social grebes in April, finding good footing and a slide or two on much-thick ice. The rotting surface of a partially submerged log displayed a good crop of small puffballs, filled with brown "smoke". Ripe puffballs to the outdoorsman are just like wet paint to the curious. They have to be tested. So we all tried out a few puffballs, achieved some satisfactory puffs and wandered on down the valley.

For some years now my wife has been threatening to gather, paint and assemble a winter bouquet similar to the beautiful creations offered at fancy prices by florists and the larger department stores. When our path edged an abandoned field containing some magnificent material she once again caught the fever and soon was lugging a small bale of dried flower stalks of evening primrose, teal, moth mullein and others. These she carried carefully all through the journey and I last saw them on a chair in the kitchen. In a day or two they will disappear and the bouquet will not be mentioned again until we encounter some good material on a future ramble.

We followed the roadway cleared above a pipe line right-of-way and came out at the swinging bridge. Here we turned toward home along the creek bank, noting many muskrat tracks and a variety of debris deposited by flood waters. Beneath a large elm tree we chanced upon a furry object which at first glance appeared to be a rabbit's foot, but which turned out to be a pellet disgorged by an owl. It was a neatly compressed bundle, containing the fur, bones and teeth of prey which the owl had bolted whole.

Owl Domicile
I suspected the elm of harboring this owl. A quick survey confirmed the suspicion. Near the top of a broken main branch, apparently the victim of a heavy storm, was a perfect owl domicile, probably drilled out originally by a flicker. The opening was quite large, and the size of the pellet suggested one of the medium-sized owls perhaps the long-eared species. I did not climb the snag, but tossed a stick against the trunk near the opening, hoping to force the occupant into view. Mr. Owl did not show himself, but I am certain we have his address. We will pay him a formal call later.

We crossed the bottomland, climbed the wooded hillside, and came out on the highway close by our own fences. The rest of the party called it a day and retired to the house to do battle with a roost of beef. I was hoping to add a new bird to the 1946 list and journeyed across the neighboring farm, where a piece of upland sometimes produces an unusual visitor. I had not gone far when I came across a flock of brownish birds, somewhat larger than our common English sparrow. They were quite tame, running about over the ground and rarely perfectly for burning over the lawn area about the house. Soon I was wandering around in a billowing cloud of smoke, armed with an old broom to sweep out the blaze when it got too close to pyre shrubs and breathing the glorious fragrance of burned-over sod grass.

Black said disbursements in the previous week amounted to $2,076,418 to jobless workers and $2,038,125 to former servicemen.

Plan Campaign To Add Members

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Jan. 24.—(INS)—The National Commission on Evangelism of the Presbyterian church in the U. S. A. announced plans for a campaign to add one million more members to the church.

The program was disclosed by Dr. Raymond Walker, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Harrisburg, Pa., who is chairman of the commission. The group, composed of 37 church leaders from all parts of the country, ended a three-day conference in Atlantic City. Dr. Walker said the church has a current membership of approximately 2,100,000 persons.

Testing Smog At Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 24.—(INS)—"Where does smog come from?" That's the question Dr. Sumner B. Ely, superintendent of the Pittsburgh bureau of smoke prevention, today hoped to answer with a smoke-testing machine—a gadget which implies soot—during the steel smog trial.

Dr. Ely plans to have the tester sniff the atmosphere when the next coldfront forms over Pittsburgh. A test made now and later compared with a soot report when the steel mills are again in operation will reveal what portion of the smoke and smog is produced by the mills.

The Supreme Authority In Religion

To get along with each other here we must have a common standard and someone with the authority to enforce that standard. If everyone drove his car with no respect for traffic regulations it certainly would not be safe for anyone on our highways.

In religion, if we are to get along, we must also have a common standard. If we were all following the Bible we would all be speaking the same thing and there would be no divisions among us; but we would be perfectly joined together in the same mind and the same judgment as Paul says we must, 1 Cor. 1:10. Then our prayer would be answered in Jno. 17:21.

God said in Matt. 17:5 "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him". God speaks to us today by his Son, Heb. 1:2. Everything we do in word or deed must be done in His name or by His authority, Col. 3:17. Christ has all power in heaven and in earth, Matt. 28:18.

Thus we see that Christ is the supreme authority in religion. We must hear Him. We must obey Him. Anything he has commanded through his apostles we must do, Matt. 28:20. Anything He has not commanded we must not do, 2 Jno. 9. Are you hearing Him?

Moose Get Ready For New Building

Foundation Tests Prove Satisfactory And Contract Will Be Let Shortly

WILL BUILD AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

Tests of the sub-soil on the site purchased by New Castle Lodge No. 51, Loyal Order of Moose, on South Mercer street, having proven satisfactory, one of the barriers in the way of construction of the handsome new lodge home has been removed. Governor George R. Gettys announced today.

The plans as drawn for the lodge provide for a two-story structure with sub-basement, 35' by 108 feet in size, with two wings at the back of the building, bringing the width to 98 feet. These plans have been sent to the Supreme Lodge for approval, and as soon as they are accepted, bids will be asked for.

Soil Satisfactory
One of the objections raised by the engineers of the Supreme Lodge was the type of sub-soil, and the tests conducted last week proved to be satisfactory.

The location is between South and Lawrence streets on South Mercer street, extending back to Cochran way, the lodge having purchased this location several years ago. Building restrictions during the war, however, prevented them from carrying out their plan for the construction of a new building at this time.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Among the rumors listed for this year in the budget of the county is one calling for the replacing of the tower on the court house, and also the clock.

There are those who believe the tower could be torn down and left off altogether, others argue the architectural beauty of the court house would be destroyed. One thing is certain, extensive repairs are necessary or some bright afternoon the tower will be parked in Court street.

As for the clock, it has already gone on one rampage, dropping one of the 1500 pound weights below the floor to the corridor below. Fortunately no one was hurt.

The repairs will cost considerable money but perhaps they are worth it. At any rate something is going to be done this year.

Squirrel, Cardinal Have Fight For Food

One morning this week, at Caston Park, Owen Fox, city forester, saw a wild life drama depicting the struggle for existence' broken up by hunger.

At the feeding station, a squirrel was feeding on an ear of corn, snatching off the grains from the cob. A hungry cardinal witnessed the operation and decided it would have some of the corn to satisfy its needs.

The cardinal flew to the platform where the squirrel was at work. The bird entered the enclosure and attempted to seize some loose corn, whereupon the selfish animal sought to drive the cardinal away.

The bird had other ideas, and instead of beating a retreat flew into the squirrel's face. There was a short squabble, and it was the rodent that retreated for about 10 feet from the station. There in the deep snow it barked, stamped its feet, and flicked its tail in anger and remonstrance, but did not return to the station until the cardinal left.

State Farm Show In Closing Sessions

Louis Bromfield, Noted Author And Farmer, Makes Address On Wednesday Night

HARRISBURG, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Delegates to the 30th annual farm show prepared to close the three-day sessions at Harrisburg today mindful of a warning that "American agriculture is sick."

"The sickness pervades the whole of our economy," Louis Bromfield, farm-author, said at a banquet sponsored by the Aberdeen-Angus breeders last night. "It is an agriculture of declining production and increasing production costs per acre."

War-time crop outputs were the most expensive on record because the United States was spending its natural resources faster than any nation in history, he declared. The only remedy was conservation practices to restore impoverished soil, he added.

"Even at high prices the production of many commodities had to be subsidized by taxpayers money—a form of economic deceit and self-deception," Bromfield asserted.

Warns America

"When the line of diminishing production per acre crosses that of increasing production costs, we shall have a 'kept' agriculture, with subsidies plus high prices plus shortages which in the end can only arrive at the living standards and diet of the Chinese," he stated.

He cautioned against lavish distribution of America's resources throughout the world because when they are gone "we shall become a third or fourth-rate nation."

Increased production of beef cattle in Pennsylvania was encouraged by State Secretary of Agriculture Miles Horst.

At the beginning of 1946, he said, there were 77,000 cattle and calves earmarked for marketing in contrast with approximately 150,000 at the same time of year 35 years ago.

Dr. Fred F. Lininger, director of the Pennsylvania State College Experiment Station, told beekeepers that "new patterns of farm life" must be molded through research to keep pace with economic and social changes.

Nine state-wide farm organizations, including the potato growers' association, completed business and educational conclaves.

Tattooing is common in Egypt.

Highlights On The Sunday School Lesson

The tabernacle.

"I was glad when they said unto me, let us go unto the house of Jehovah."—Psalm 122:1.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for January 27 is Exodus 24-40, the Memory Verse being Psalm 122:1. "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go unto the house of Jehovah.")

In the first half of the book of Exodus which we are studying, we followed the people of Israel through their troubles in Egypt, after Joseph died and had been forgotten, the birth and rise of Moses to be their leader, the various plagues brought on the Egyptians to make them let the chosen people leave Egypt, and their final departure.

For all these deliverances and blessings the Israelites owed God eternal thanks and worship. The second half of Exodus, which is included in today's lesson, is concerned with the building of the tabernacle in all its details, with the appointment of priests, their vestments and symbols, and the conduct of worship.

Moses was instructed to take his brother Aaron, Aaron's sons, Nadab and Abihu, and 70 elders, and go up into the mountain, on top of which a cloud rested. Moses was told he was to go up into the cloud to receive the tables of stone on which the laws and commandments were to be written that he might teach the people.

The others were told to stay behind with Aaron while Moses went into the cloud. Moses was gone 40 days and 40 nights.

Moses Told How to Build
There the Lord gave Moses specific instructions as to the building and furnishing of the tabernacle, and the appointment of Aaron as chief priest and his sons and their garb and consecrations. He was told how the sacrifices should be prepared and offered, down to the minutest details. Everything the priests wore pertained to their holy office and symbolized modesty, reverence, purity, innocence, and the grandeur of the holy office—holiness to Jehovah. As elsewhere in the Bible, incense was to be used by the priests, "symbolic of prayers arising from the hearts of believers."

After Moses had been in the cloud upon the mountain some days, the people grew restless, and probably frightened, and they asked Aaron to build them a god that they might worship—an idol. Why Aaron listened and cooperated with this wicked scheme we never will know—he who was to be the Lord's priest. He did, however, and directed them to bring their gold ornaments, and he melted them in the furnace and fashioned a golden calf, and all the people worshiped it.

When the Lord saw this blasphemy after all the blessings He had bestowed upon this people, He became very angry and told Moses He was going to destroy them for their wickedness. But "Moses besought the Lord," reminding Him of all He had done for this "stiff-necked" people and what He had promised Abraham, Isaac and Israel, His people.

"And the Lord repented of the evil which He thought to do unto His people," Moses went down to the people and he was so angry he broke the tables of stone. And he took the golden calf and burnt it and ground it into powder, poured water upon it, and made the children of Israel drink of the water.

Levites on Moses' Side

He then asked who among the people were on his side, and all the sons of Levi went to him, and he made them take swords at their sides and slay, and about 3,000 men died that day. "Consecrate yourselves today to the Lord, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that He may bestow upon you a blessing this day," Moses ordered them.

On the next day Moses told them they had sinned a great sin but he would make atonement for their sin. He begged the Lord to forgive them, which He did, but they were punished, nevertheless, by plagues.

Because of Moses' intercession, the Israelites were spared and promised the "land flowing with milk and honey." Moses gathered the people together and told them that "whoever is of a willing heart let him bring it, Jehovah's offering: gold and silver, and brass," etc. The list being too long to repeat here. Now was the time to begin the construction of the tabernacle.

"And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, and brought brooches, and earrings, and signet rings, and armlets, all jewels of gold; even every man that offered an offering of gold to Jehovah."

Every man who owned "blue" and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen and goats' hair, and ram's skins dyed red, and seal skins, brought them.

"And all the women that were wise-hearted did spin with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, the blue, and the purple, the scarlet, and the fine linen. . . . The children of Israel brought a freewill offering unto Jehovah, every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all the work, which Jehovah had commanded to be made by Moses."

When the tabernacle was finished "a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle." (Copyright, 1946, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Birthday Of Kiwanis Noted

Lt. Governor Clifford Holland Traces History Of Kiwanis International

Observers of Kiwanis International Anniversary Week was made by New Castle Kiwanis club, in connection with their weekly luncheon meeting in the Castleton, Wednesday noon. Lt. Governor Clifford Holland, of the Lower Beaver Valley club, was the guest speaker on the occasion and traced the history of Kiwanis International.

Preceding his address, the Education committee inducted Fred Caruth, of the Sherman-Williams company, as a new member and did such a fine job that it won the commendation of Lt. Gov. Holland. The committee is composed of R. Z. Galbreath, chairman, L. C. Mantz, R. L. Wallace, Tom Paden, and M. R. Hornung.

The accomplishments and activities of the club were reviewed for Mr. Caruth.

Originated in 1914 Mr. Holland stated that the Kiwanis club originated in Detroit in 1914, and its originator had in mind a fraternal benefit organization, rather than a service organization, when he projected the organization, and the Kiwanis club movement went along on this idea for several years, when it was changed over in 1918 to its present setup.

In 1922, the club adopted as its major objective, work with the underprivileged children. The name Kiwanis was coined from two Indian words Ki and Wanis, meaning "making one's self known", and the motto "we build", was adopted.

While other clubs may surpass Kiwanis in size, there are none which surpass them in service to the community, Mr. Holland stated. He urged the adoption of the golden rule as the club's guiding light.

By Extension Representatives, LEWIS C. DAYTON, Agriculture, MISS MARY ELLEN McCLAIN, Home Economics.

COLD-WEATHER CHICKS MAY SOLVE POULTRY PROBLEMS

Here are a few reasons why so called "early" or cold-weather chicks should be included in plans of Lawrence County poultrymen for 1946.

They distribute labor in brooding and make better use of equipment. Cold-weather chicks avoid spring production surpluses and supply more large and medium-sized eggs in the period of relative scarcity and highest market prices.

For meat birds, use of cold-weather chicks improve the supply by marketing cockerels before the use of this type of poultry comes in the markets. This also makes hens available for market between Thanksgiving and Easter, when there is a real demand for this weight and class of fowl.

Early chicks help reduce death loss by eliminating the influence of disease organisms that operate best in warm, damp spring and early summer weather. Their use also permits heavier early culling after peak production of early-hatched pullets laying heavily during high priced periods.

Approve Measure Designed To Curb Petrillo's Powers

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—A bill designed to curb the powers of James C. Petrillo, president of the American Federation of Musicians, was approved Wednesday by the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce.

By a vote of 14 to 5 the committee reported to the House a measure sponsored by Rep. Lea (D-Calif., committee chairman, designed to "prohibit certain coercive practices affecting radio broadcasting."

Before approving the bill the committee reduced the penalties for violations, making the maximum punishment of one year's imprisonment and $1,000 fine. The measure originally made violation a felony punishable by up to five years imprisonment and a $5,000 fine.

The committee rejected a motion by Rep. Marcantonio (AL-N.Y.) to strike out language in the bill which would ban strikes in the communications industry.

Harris blamed speed and reckless driving as being responsible for "practically all of these accidents."

He said fatalities had increased 11 per cent over 1944. A total of 29,928 persons were injured the previous year, he added.

Approximately one-half of the 1945 fatalities, 674 deaths, were pedestrians, Harris said.

Oak Street Pupils See Sound Pictures

Sound pictures as a medium of teaching through the "eye gate" is a regular feature of the Oak Street grade school these days, with the pupils thoroughly enjoying the innovation in their quest for education.

Through the funds realized from the tin collection during the war and the cooperation of the School board, who provided half of the fund, a new Bell and Howell 16-mm sound motion picture machine has been purchased for joint use between the Oak Street and Rose Avenue grade schools.

Such educational films as dramatizations of particular parts of history, poetry and travel pictures are shown on the screen to make their lessons more vivid to the pupils. Miss Marjorie Lindsey and Mrs. Bertha Thompson operate the machine in the Oak Street building.

A Spencer Delineascope, for use in showing slide pictures has also been added for use in the school work.

In the Middle Ages the most famous of all the medical schools was that of Salerno, near Naples. It was organized in connection with a monastery of Benedictine monks.

PENNSYLVANIA POWER COMPANY

ity on the subject, the great corresponding constituents crisis came to a head yesterday when General Eisenhower testified before the house military affairs committee on demobilization.

It was a tough session on everybody, despite an obvious attempt to get along. The congressmen told the general they thought he'd been doing a pretty good job—generally speaking—on demobilization and he told them their recent army recruiting bill was the best in history.

But still there was a plaintive note about the whole proceeding. "Look, general," a congressman would say, "I have a letter here on one phase of demobilization—"

"Minor League Mail"

That went on indefinitely. Until one congressman said: "Why, I get three or four hundred letters on that subject daily."

"Three or four hundred!" exploded another representative. "That's minor league mail!"

Shorted out one of the general's assistants, sotto voce: "Minor league my eye, that's not even sandlot stuff." It developed that the general gets mail, too...

There was one silver lining in the whole situation. Just before the hearing began, Eisenhower was caught in an enveloping movement by a bunch of irate wives who came all the way to Washington to tell him to get their soldier husbands home.

After that, even the congressmen admitted they preferred the mail to the females.

Mercer Farmer Helps Meat Lack

MERCER, Jan. 24.—John McDowell of the Mercer-Jackson Center road, who in addition to being the largest potato grower of the county is also extensively engaged in cattle raising on his extensive farms, is assisting in meeting the meat shortage in the Pittsburgh district during the nationwide strike of the packers plants, and on Tuesday sent 40 head of his prime beefs to that city. He still has 165 head which he is feeding for the market.

A year ago Mr. McDowell met with a heavy loss to his cattle when 27 head broke from their enclosure and got on the tracks of the Bessemer and Lake Erie railroad east of Mercer and were run down by a freight train. Six head were killed outright and 13 badly injured but were salvaged. Four of the head escaped injury.

Naturally, it goes without saying that none of the characters in this little tragedy can be mentioned by name, for an M. C.—anglicized abbreviation for member of congress—would sooner cut a cousin off the payroll than admit he didn't just love such letters from constituents, particularly with primaries coming up and all like that...

"Even before the war ended we were averaging 300 letters a day," the secretary said. "Then came victory and peace. Peace! Hah! Also came demobilization, and the daily take went up to 500. Then that man from MISSOURI made a speech, telling the people to tell congress what they wanted. And they are doing it! Now we're getting 500 letters in the morning and 500 in the afternoon, and I'm supposed to see that they're answered. All I can do is quit!"

Plight Of Congressmen

That seems to be practically the plight in the office of almost every member of congress. If the nation's legislators aren't just wild about Harry any more, its partially because the postman now only rings twice, he also hits the jackpot every time.

Much as the solons seek anonymity...

Plan Improvement For State Ports

HARRISBURG, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Eight hundred thousand dollars will be expended for improvement of Pennsylvania ports under recommendations submitted by Secretary of Forces and Waters James A. Kell, it was reported by Gov. Edward Martin.

The General Assembly appropriated a million dollar fund for port improvement but $200,000 has been allocated for projects at Erie. The city also received $100,000 from the commonwealth's general fund for beach improvement.

The money will be expended at Chester, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia although Erie may receive another allocation.

Although Hawaii has several active volcanoes, there have been no volcanic disasters in recent times. This is due to the peculiar nature of the lava, which releases rather than imprisons the explosive gases.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Officials of the Rockefeller Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation had no comment today on a request that they place their monetary resources behind a program for achieving lasting world peace.

Both Raymond B. Posidick, president of the Rockefeller Foundation, and Devereux C. Josephs, president of the Carnegie Corporation, were informed of a speech by Bardsley Ruml of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York proposing such a course. Neither, however, would comment pending further study of the Ruml plan to secure the financial support of each group for ultimate world government.

Freight Shipments
Normal In Chicago
After Strike Threat

CHICAGO, Jan. 24. — (INS) — Movement of rail freight shipments in the Chicago area was back on a normal schedule today after being interrupted by a threatened strike of 1,500 railroad yardmen and trainmen.

The strike, called for 10:30 o'clock last night, was averted shortly before the deadline in conferences between executives of the Brotherhood Railroad Trainmen and New York Central Railroad.

The workers were ready to walk off their jobs on the Indiana Harbor Belt Railroad and the Chicago Junction Railroad which shuttle freight between 21 rail lines converging in Chicago and do the switching for industrial plants.

Both roads are operated by the New York Central System.

The BRT accused the shuttle lines of violating contract agreements with four locals of the union.

Pennsy Railroad
Feels Strike Pinch

With state-wide steel mills idle, the pinch of the strike has been felt by the Pennsylvania Railroad system, LeRoy Simcoe, chief clerk of the Ashtabula and Erie division, said today.

Since the hauling of steel products comprises a heavy percentage of the road's freight totals, such a sudden stoppage has thrown many cars idle. Coal is still being delivered to the mills, however, in sufficient quantities to maintain fires in the furnaces.

Numerous yard crews have been temporarily laid off all over the E. &amp; A. Division, due to the acute slowing of freight movements.

Who pays the wages?

Men and women who work for wages get their pay checks from the company. Where does the company get its money?

Obviously, from the sale of its products. In other words, from other men and women who buy what workers make.

Most of what the customer pays goes for wages, directly and indirectly.

If workers ask too much for their services, the prices of the products they make get too high. Fewer customers are able to buy.

The result is fewer sales and fewer jobs.

For the sake of employes, just as much as for the sake of investors, management must keep in mind the fact that the customer pays the wages.

Thus, in the long run sales and jobs grow from a proper balance between wages and prices.

Commission To Go To Europe To Study Artificial Limbs

Eight-Man Group Will Evaluate European Developments In Program For Amputees

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS).—An eight-man commission of medical and engineering specialists will fly to Europe the first week of March to study any means for possible improvement of artificial limb program.

An army spokesman disclosed today that a cable is expected shortly from Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, commanding general of the European theater, clearing the way for the mission.

A memorandum to Maj. Gen. Norman T. Kirk, army surgeon general, said that the national research council has already urged that "any meritorious European development be evaluated" in an effort to improve limbs for America's approximately 17,000 World War II amputees. In disclosing the communication, the officer asserted that the war department is determined that nothing will be overlooked in securing the best substitutes for legs and arms lost in battle.

The highest travel priority has been requested for this group of specialists in carrying out their overseas assignment to see what, if anything, Europe has in artificial limbs which is superior to devices provided in America.

The proposed travel log includes London, Paris, Berlin, Heidelberg, Munich, Moscow, Leningrad and Stockholm. The trip is expected to take about two months.

German Bride Of G. I. Joe Will Get Family Welcome

Elmsford, N. Y., Returned Soldier
Awaits German Bride's Arrival
In This Country

ELMSFORD, N. Y., Jan. 24.—(INS)—The parents of Russell W. Horton, G. I. who took unto himself a German bride in Frankfurt, said today their son's act was "perfectly all right" as far as they are concerned.

Russell's father, George Horton, said he and his wife will welcome the bride with open arms.

Young Horton and two former comrades in arms had petitioned President Truman for permission to marry German sweethearts in the face of an army ban. He subsequently revealed he had married secretly, without presidential blessing.

Neighbors of the Hortons share their intention to make the new bride feel at home when, as and if she gets to America.

Complete Hearing On Legality Of New Strip Mining Law

HARRISBURG, Jan. 24.—(INS)—The testimony of two commonwealth witnesses was expected to compete today a five-day hearing in the Dauphin county court on the constitutionality of the state's strip mining control law.

Deputy Attorney General H. F. Stembach said they would be officials of the game commission and department of forests and waters. He would not identify them.

Six state mine inspectors testified yesterday to the combustibility of uncovered coal seams and the majority admitted that fires could be started despite soil restoration following stripping. It was testified that while surface mining often resulted in a release of acid water from deep mines into streams, the water would eventually seek its way from untouched pits.

Three plaintiffs have attempted to show that the fact was discriminatory and unreasonable since it was limited to bituminous surface operators.

The case was initiated by Alexander Dufour, of Grampian, R. D. 2, and the Eba Coal Company and Yorkshire Coal Company, Inc., of Madera.

Portersville Pigs Present Problem

The News has been the recipient of many queries and problems on varied subjects down through the years and now Mrs. Lena Laderer, of Portersville, reports this one.

Mrs. Laderer relates that on Saturday evening of last week, her son "Susie" brought forth fifteen little pigs, three still-born and one dying during the night.

Of the remaining eleven pigs, four of them were destined to be runts and eventual death unless special care and attention were given to them. Mrs. Laderer and her husband, Paul, undertook to nurse the little porkers and have been doing so since birth.

The problem confronting the couple is this: How to keep the little fellows alive? The couple have been feeding them on a special formula and thus far have been successful but the hourly job is wearing down the resistance of the patient pair.

To add to their multiple problems, Mrs. Laderer reported that their English Setter just came across with 10 puppies.

Any solution to the pig feeding problem would be welcomed, Mrs. Laderer says.

GIRL 12 GIVES BIRTH TO BABY

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Jan. 24.—(INS)—A 12-year-old mother and her six pound, one ounce baby daughter were reported getting along "satisfactorily" today at an Albuquerque hospital.

Attending physicians said the baby is in good health and is being nursed by her unidentified mother. The birth occurred last Friday and was normal in every way, physicians said.

Public welfare officials caring for the young mother and infant withheld her name and indicated the father was unknown. They refused to comment on reports that the father is a 15-year-old boy.

Junior High School Enrollment Is Same For Second Semester

Since the end of the two-term year system in the New Castle schools, second semester now mean nothing more than the end of a six-week period, does the city's junior high school report.

Schedule changes, home room changes, and often great changes in enrollment used to accompany the end of each semester, whereas this year Ben Franklin's enrollment has decreased only slightly since the beginning of the school year and Washington Junior High has gained about as many pupils as it has lost.

New Castle High Battles Ellwood Here On Friday

Traditional Foes Through-out Section Three Will Tangle In Classy Tilts

FINAL GAME FOR STACK AND WALLS

Friday night is traditional for night in this district for Section III teams, although one set of foes jump the gun and battle tonight for the league lead—Alliquippa at Ambridge. New Castle high enters the Ellwood City High Woburns at the Washington High gym at 8 o'clock. The prelin between the reserve teams starts at 7 o'clock.

Other sectional games that smack of tradition are Beaver Falls at New Brighton and Sharon at Farrell.

Locals Favored to Win
New Castle High having won two sectional games—New Brighton and Beaver Falls—are given the edge in their meeting with the Ellwoodians on the strength of Ellwood having lost to the New Brighton Lions 28 to 27 in a close one recently, while New Castle blasted New Brighton here Tuesday night, 30 to 19.

The game Friday will make three this week for New Castle's quiet—quite a few in one week—Alliquippa won here Monday, 39 to 32 in a tough battle. Ellwood City has been idle all week long, their Tuesday game with the "Guips" having been moved ahead to February 22.

New Castle Loses Two
New Castle High will lose two stars after the Ellwood game—big Pete Stack and Billy Walls having graduated at the semester. Both boys will be sorely missed as New Castle moves into the second half of the sectional race.

Ellwood will have a shining star in the lineup in young Joe Dougherty, leading scorer in Section III. He is a pivot man and one of the best Ellwood City has had for some time. He will be hard to stop. All other teams in the section have found this to be true so far this year.

Ellwood City has won one and lost four to date, having defeated Beaver Falls and having dropped tough ones to Farrell, Sharon, Ambridge, and New Brighton. New Castle has been defeated by Ambridge, Farrell, Sharon and Alliquippa.

Steelers Sign Fran Mattioli

Star Pitt Guard Expects Discharge From Navy Monday, Will Graduate In June

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 24.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Steelers today added the name of Francis Mattioli, co-captain and guard at Pitt last season, to its roster of play-for-pay recruits.

Mattioli, who expects to be discharged from the navy Monday, is scheduled to be graduated from the Pitt School of Dentistry June 12. He told reporters:

"I am glad to sign with the Steelers and play pro football in Pittsburgh. During my high school days I wanted to play under Dr. Jock Subichand, but missed that opportunity when he left the university. Now I will attain that desire with the Steelers."

Mattioli, who is five feet eleven inches in height and tips the scales at 215 pounds, played four years of varsity football at Pitt under war-relaxed regulations.

McMillin Approves Pro Recruiting In Ranks Of Colleges

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Indiana University Football Coach Alvin N. (Bo) McMillin Wednesday was on record with an approval of pro recruiting from his college ranks.

Speaking of the loss of Ted Kluszewski, right end, to the Cincinnati Reds baseball club, McMillin said: "I have a great deal of admiration for Bill McKechnie and don't feel he was doing any wrong in approaching Ted. My ideas are identical concerning pro football. If a boy wants to give up his college career to play for money, that is up to the individual."

"Coach of the year" McMillin addressed a Y. M. C. A. membership rally in Pittsburgh.

Wasik Returns To Westminster

Big Stan Wasik Member Of Championship 1940-41 Team Back On Titan Squad

SEVERAL OTHER PLAYERS ADDED

NEW WILMINGTON, Jan. 24.—Classrooms and not the hardwood courts are the scenes of battle for Westminster college basketball players who are concentrating on semester examinations this week.

Exams have created a lull in district edge competition and Westminster is not scheduled to return to action until Jan. 31 when Olmsted Field comes to town. A break in scheduling will keep the Titans at home for three engagements with Gannon college and Akron university following the service team to New Wilmington.

Stan Wasik Returns
Coach Grover C. Washbaugh finds the local situation picking up for the second half of play. A repayment is being made for his loans of players to the service during the past four years. The Titans will undoubtedly be strengthened by the return of Stan "Fish" Wasik, 6'3" member of the 1940-41 state championship team; Billy McHinnery, a promising freshman of the 41-42 squad; and Tom Jones, who came to Westminster from Connellville the following year.

In addition Washbaugh is expecting to acquire several promising freshmen from the Shenango valley—Mike Magula of Sharpsville, George Kerlock of Farrell and Mike Szepka of Sharon.

Mylin Returns To Lafayette

EASTON, Pa., Jan. 24.—(INS)—E. E. "Hoss" Mylin, Lafayette college football coach from 1937 to 1942, again held that post today following his re-appointment by President Ralph Cooper Hutchison.

Mylin, who coached the Camp Lee, Va., team in 1945, will take over March 1, succeeding Ben Wolfson. During his previous six seasons at Lafayette, Mylin turned out undefeated teams in 1937 and 1941. He was named "coach of the year" in 1937. He teams won 34, lost 17 and tied one.

Before coming to Lafayette, Mylin coached teams at Lebanon Valley and Bucknell.

Lieut. Clet Gladchuk, former Borton college all-American center, has joined the physical fitness staff of the Naval ROTC unit at Penn State. Gladchuk, who plans to play pro football after his discharge, was a member of the Merchant Marine academy coaching staff at Kings Point, N. Y., last fall.

Lambert Quits Perdue Coaching

Ward "Piggy" Lambert Causes Shock As He Announces Retirement From Floor Game

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—(INS)—The nation's greatest unified collegiate athletic conference stood in shocked surprise Wednesday with the news that "Piggy" Lambert, dean of mid-western basketball mentors, has coached his last game.

Official announcement of Lambert's resignation came late last night from Lafayette Ind., home of the Purdue coach teams which he guided to 11 Big Ten titles in 29 years.

Statement Issued
A statement, issued by University President Frederick L. Hovde and Athletic Director Guy Mackey, said:

"Following nearly 29 years of distinguished service at Purdue university, Professor Ward L. Lambert has requested that he be relieved of his duties as head coach of varsity basketball. The administration has reluctantly agreed with his request to retire from an active and strenuous coaching duty, for his record at Purdue stands second to none. It was only on his insistence that his resignation as varsity basketball coach was finally accepted."

The administration statement went on to add that with the war over, the 60-year-old Lambert's desire to undertake less strenuous duties has been arranged. He will continue as a member of the staff in his capacity as professor of physical education and as head coach of varsity basketball.

COACH QUILTS JOB
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 23.—(INS)—C. B. Ross, head coach and director of athletics at Morris Harvey college, Charleston, Wednesday tendered his resignation for "personal reasons."

President Leonard Riggimen said Ross' resignation was accepted with "regret."

Arrange Monday Night's Battles

Maloney, Pander, Gibbons, Newkirk, Berizo, Cisco Kid Among Amateurs Book Matched

Pugilistic Menu

Tony Fair, Youngstown, vs. Jimmy Maloney, Ellwood City, 147.
Bud Pander, New Castle, vs. Nelson Taylor, Youngstown, 130.
Jimmy Gibbons, Ellwood City, vs. Joe York, Youngstown, 140.
Cisco Kid, Youngstown, vs. Joe Wolfe, Pittsburgh, 160.
Johnny Duncan, Youngstown, vs. Gene Pollitzer, Pittsburgh, 160.
Carl Tobacjar, Pittsburgh, vs. Henry Owens, Youngstown, 150.
Benny Newkirk, New Castle, vs. Lallo Berizo, Youngstown, 147.
Harry Madison, Youngstown, vs. Bobby Timpson, Youngstown, 138.

Having spent more than a week in an endeavor to arrange an excellent pugilistic menu for fight hungry fans, the Jefferson A. C. card for Monday night has been decided. Indications there'll be more punch served than in either of the last two shows. Bobby Timpson and Harry Madison, but Buckeye state rival lightweight, are scheduled to do a repeat. Timpson decided Madison two weeks ago after both had been floored.

Terry McManus of the Pittsburgh Box club, shrewd trainer, will handle Joe Wolfe against the Cisco Kid who according to a report, is floundering under Kitz, and if he can uphold his reputation he will have floored him. Terry also will second Gene Pollitzer against Johnny Duncan and Carl Tobacjar against tough Henry Owens.

To Test "Hooker" Newkirk
Jimmy Gibbons or Chuck as he is better known in Ellwood City will make his third fight against Joe York of Youngstown. Gibbons lost to Benny Newkirk in a substitution fight, came back and hit and Youngstown two weeks ago and hopes to win Monday night. His fellow townsman Jimmy Maloney, who defeated Chuck Taylor two weeks ago, will box Tony Fair.

Tommy Jones, Jr., is training Bud Pander the "fighting printer's devil" against Nelson Taylor. It will be Bud's first fight. Benny Newkirk is opposed to seasoned Lallo Berizo and having fought him in his previous fights fans know that Lallo is a tough, rugged customer, hence they expect Berizo to get a thrashing.

Lambert Quits Perdue Coaching

Ward "Piggy" Lambert Causes Shock As He Announces Retirement From Floor Game

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—(INS)—The nation's greatest unified collegiate athletic conference stood in shocked surprise Wednesday with the news that "Piggy" Lambert, dean of mid-western basketball mentors, has coached his last game.

Official announcement of Lambert's resignation came late last night from Lafayette Ind., home of the Purdue coach teams which he guided to 11 Big Ten titles in 29 years.

Statement Issued
A statement, issued by University President Frederick L. Hovde and Athletic Director Guy Mackey, said:

"Following nearly 29 years of distinguished service at Purdue university, Professor Ward L. Lambert has requested that he be relieved of his duties as head coach of varsity basketball. The administration has reluctantly agreed with his request to retire from an active and strenuous coaching duty, for his record at Purdue stands second to none. It was only on his insistence that his resignation as varsity basketball coach was finally accepted."

The administration statement went on to add that with the war over, the 60-year-old Lambert's desire to undertake less strenuous duties has been arranged. He will continue as a member of the staff in his capacity as professor of physical education and as head coach of varsity basketball.

COACH QUILTS JOB
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 23.—(INS)—C. B. Ross, head coach and director of athletics at Morris Harvey college, Charleston, Wednesday tendered his resignation for "personal reasons."

President Leonard Riggimen said Ross' resignation was accepted with "regret."

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Fritz Zivic, the man who has "retired" so many times only to go on to another encounter, has finally found an occupation which might keep him too busy to box—but he'd still be in the game.

Zivic plans to open a boxing school for boys aged 6 to 12.

Fritz is booked to meet O'Neill Bell at Detroit on February 1 and "Mighty" retire after that—maybe.

Wampum Battles New Wilmington In Top Loop Tilt

Unbeaten Indians Leading Section; Shenango, Runner-Up, Engages Princeton

Perhaps coach Fulton Elder of the New Wilmington Greengrounds hasn't thought of using ropes, but that is about the only way the rampant Wampum Indians are going to be stopped if seems as they continue to burn up the Section XX league.

The Greengrounds have an assignment at the Chiefs' floor Friday night in a contest that puts the spotlight for the evening's battles.

In walloping Bessmer, 55-42, Tuesday, the "Source of the Beaver" tore down another important obstacle in their path, and right now look unbeatable with a winning streak of six games and no defeats.

Paced by the sensational play of Clyde Shaffer, their veteran forward, and one of the best school-boy performers in the district, the Hoonds have won all their easy contests and dropped their tough ones. They own victories over Princeton (choice

Mussolini Hale When Executed Experts Disclose

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—United States army pathologists disclosed today that they have confirmed an Italian autopsy that found Benito Mussolini "perfectly healthy" when killed last spring.

This was announced by a spokesman for the army institute of pathology in Washington.

The American scientific study was based on examination of nine slides holding microscopic specimens of the frontal lobes of Mussolini's brain. They were received from Italy.

The institute spokesman said that the specimens were "typical and unselected."

He displayed to his reporter these parts of the dictator's brain under a microscope.

The U. S. Army study of Mussolini's brain completely confirmed the findings of an official Italian autopsy. The report of this autopsy was sent to Washington along with specimens of the brain.

The spokesman asserted that Mussolini, instead of being diseased, was as widely reported, was "a perfect physical specimen" when killed by an infuriated crowd.

The heading of the report received from Italy showed that examination of Mussolini's body was made in the early morning light of an Italian forenoon.

Inspections Of Restaurants In State Directed

HARRISBURG, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Annual sanitary inspections of restaurants under the 1945 licensing law were authorized today by the state advisory health board instead of quarterly examinations.

Inspections of public eating and drinking establishments were previously required every three months. The board pointed out, however, that inspections may be held "much oftener as circumstances in connection with certain establishments may indicate."

The regulation covering cleansing and disinfection of utensils was changed to require that the germicidal agent "shall be of demonstrated efficiency" through certification by laboratory tests or a manufacturer's report. The former rule specified that the health secretary approve the disinfectant.

Local authorities conduct the tests in cities, boroughs and first class townships while the department handles examinations in second class townships.

State Guard To Have Encampment

HARRISBURG, Jan. 24.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Guard was scheduled today to hold its annual 21-day encampment at the Indian-town Gap military reservation beginning June 16.

Col. Frank A. Weber, deputy adjutant general, emphasized that the encampment plans were tentative and subject to revision. The guard currently musters 5000 men.

Five regiments, a cavalry squadron and an engineer battalion were scheduled to participate in the training period, he said.

Water cisterns built by the ancient Romans are used for modern apartment buildings in Philadelphia, Algeria.
